November 6, 2022		The ADE assumed state authority on November 6, 2017. They have been doing quarterly reports since the takeover. They will look at all of the evidence in November 2022 to see if we have met our goals to see if we can stand on our own. A team should convene in August according to Stacy Smith to look at Earle's progress. It is a Yes or No situation. Yes, we assume local control. If not, we annex or consolidate. A special election has to occur if we go back to local control. Everything will set us up for the next school year. The state will still have oversight for 3 years even if you are in local control.
